1. Saturday Vigil Mass in Templerainey at 7 pm.

2. Friday will be the First Friday of December. Mass will be in Avoca at 10 am and will be offered for all whose names are on the Parish Altar List of the Dead.
3. Archbishop Dermot Farrell's Advent Pastoral Letter can be found on the Parish Website by clicking the button Latest News on the Homepage. Some hard copies are available in the church.
4. Thank you for your generous contributions each weekend to all church collections. Every donation matters and is much appreciated.
5. The Tap and Go machine in Templerainey is out of order at present and will be fixed as soon as possible.
6. You can contribute to Planned Giving using the PayPal facility on the Parish Website – click on the Donate Button on the Homepage.
You can also connect to PayPal using the QR Code on the card you'll find in the church.
7. On the Homepage of the Parish Website you will see a calendar. Its purpose is to highlight changes to the weekday Mass schedule that come about due to, for example, a funeral. So, if you are planning to attend a particular Mass you can check beforehand. It is a work in progress – the calendar presently extends indefinitely – but it will be narrowed down to the present time. If anyone has any suggestions on what would be helpful, please let me know. The technology to do many things is there. The trick is to mould it to be helpful to our purposes, and that takes the 3 Ts, time, talent, treasure.
8. If you yourself are not tech savvy, well, there may be someone in your home or nearby who is. Ask them to check things for you, or better, to show you how.
9. Avoca Parish Christmas cards are available at €2 each. Proceeds will be lodged to the Parish bank account.
10. Avoca Parish Christmas Raffle will take place after 11.30 Mass in Avoca Community Hall.
11. St Vincent de Paul Christmas Appeal will be at Masses in 2 week's time 10th/11th December.
